MEMPHIS, TN (WMC) - Three people were arrested during protests at Graceland on Monday.

Gregory Thompson, 23, and Kauz Spencer Curtis, 20, were arrested for criminal trespass. Dana Asbury, 31, was arrested for criminal trespass, disorderly conduct, and inciting riot.

The protesters gathered just outside the estate on Elvis Presley Boulevard in an area designated by Memphis Police Department. Inside the gates, Elvis fans came together for a candlelight vigil to honor the anniversary of his death.

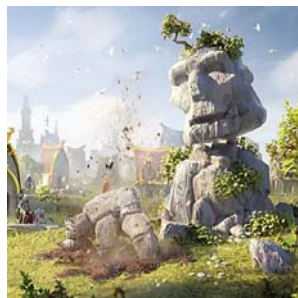

The Coalition of Concerned Citizens cited poverty and crime as the reasons for the protest as they fought for social and economic justice.

The vigil happened peacefully, but protesters became upset when a line of officers barred them from approaching Graceland at Elvis Presley Boulevard at Craft Road.

MPD said Graceland security decided whether or not to grant access to people inside the permitted area for Graceland's festivities. MPD stood at the entry to Graceland to maintain peace.
